The new Willerby Castleton has arrived at St Audries Bay Holiday Club. Designed with family living in mind, this home has many features to make your holidays more comfortable.

The large hallway is practical with its easy to clean flooring and shoe storage. A place to take off your shoes after a day at the beach. The wrap around seating in the lounge has an occasional bed so easily accommodating extra guests. The home is very light and has a unique shape, namely due to the feature angled window. The large floor to ceiling window and side patio doors allow the sea views inside. The kitchen is always the hub of the home. Carefully located opposite the dining area is a cosy nook for entertaining and keeping the family happy. The appliances are integrated and include microwave, 70/30 fridge freezer, dishwasher, cooker and hob.

The master bedroom is full of surprises and provides luxury whilst away. Decorated in greys with yellow accents, you'll be sure to find this room relaxing. Other luxuries include reading lights, upholstered headboard, mirrored dressing area with stool and en-suite shower and WC.

All in all the Willerby Castleton is a modern family holiday home – perfect to keep everyone happy!
