This home has been well cared for and has exceptional sea views creating a beautiful holiday home by the sea.

There have been many modifications made both inside and out to enhance this home making it very comfortable and homely. The lounge is bright and open, created by the large front window which admires the spectacular sea view. There are two free standing sofas, one of which accommodates a sofa bed to house your extra guests.

The kitchen is fully functional and includes the cooker and fridge freezer. The current owners are leaving a new satellite dish, Freesat box, new dining table and chairs, garden tools, garden table and chairs and all bedding.

*Pitch fee paid for the 2019 season
